As a Navigator, you will interact with all sorts of different MST customers. Being friendly and flexible is a key trait of a great Navigator. It is important to know when to speak up and contribute and/or when not to get involved. Are you approachable and a good listener? Are you comfortable approaching people when they look like they need assistance?

Being a Navigator isn’t just about giving your time. It requires positive energy! You need to be able to hit the ground running, so to speak, and be excited about what you are doing. If you have good positive energy, people around you will follow suit.

As a Navigator, you are entrusted with MST’s resources, facilities, and customers. This is a huge responsibility! Great Navigators realize that everything they are doing is a direct representation of MST. Great Navigators remain professional in all situations.
APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS:
